

EGAN IS IN DANGER

Police Spies Surround the American Location in Santiago

REFUGEES FEAR AN ATTACK BY A CHILIAN MOB.

Another Insult Offered the United States
Minister—Representatives of Other Nations to Take Action on the Situation—Admiral Brown Securing Ships for Service in Pacific Waters

VALPARAISO, Chili, Dec. 22.—It is useless to longer conceal the fact that the hostile feeling against Minister Egan at Santiago is increasing. The American representative has officially called the attention of the Argentine Minister, Senor Urriburn, to the presence of Chilean police agents in the immediate vicinity of the American legation and also the attempted arrest on last Saturday night of Mr. Frank Egan, the American Minister's son.

Senor Urriburn, in his diplomatic capacity, will call a meeting of the dozen foreign Ministers for the purpose of discussing the tion of the Chilean government toward the action of the municipal authorities in maintaining police surveillance of the American legation.

Additional insult was offered the American minister yesterday in the case of one of the refugees under his protection who applied for a release upon furnishing bonds to appear when wanted by the authorities. This was recently granted to Balmaceda's Minister of War, Valdesquez.

The Government replied that the refugees must first leave the American legation, surrender himself to the Chilean authorities and submit to imprisonment. The Government said after he had done these things, would consider the request not before.

It is understood that Minister Egan has fully acquainted his Government with all the facts, and that he is in receipt of full instructions as to his future course.

The Chilean authorities strenuously deny the existence of a plot to burn the American Legation building, but the refugees who are in the asylum there are convinced that it is a plan to fire the building and that the estimates in the panic that would ensue was seriously meditated, but whether it had official sanction or not is of course not known. Americans in Chili fear that an amicable settlement of the present controversy is not possible at least so long as the United States persists in Minister Egan to conduct its side of the case.

So intense has the bitterness toward Egan irresponsible mob at any time would cause no surprise here. That the refugees under the American Minister's protection fully realize the gravity of the situation is shown by their desire to surrender to the Chileans.

CHILIAN BRUTALITY.

ANOTHER AMERICAN SAILOR MALTREATED WHILE ASHORE AT VALPARAISO.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 27.—The storied Keweenaw of the Atlantic & Pacific Mail Line has reached this port with 8,000 tons of freight for San Diego and San Francisco. On her way she was disabled and compelled to go into Valparaiso for repairs. She left Patricio Nov. 30, and brought up sailor Patrick Shields, who was maltreated by the Chileans. He had been on shore at Valparaiso with a companion and was arrested. He was not treated with special brutality, he whereupon he was knocked down and beaten. He managed to escape from the police, but was recaptured by mounted officers and was this time beaten into insensibility, in which condition he was finally without trial, sent on board the police boat. Consul McCreary at Valparaiso interceded for him, and promise was given by the Chilean officials that an indemnity would be forwarded to San Diego for shields, but nothing has arrived. The officers of the Keweenaw says the feeling among the petty criminals is bitter, but they relate no new outrages.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 22.—From information gleaned here it looks as if the reports sent out from Washington of preparations for war with Chili were true. Admiral Brown has secured an option on the new and powerful tug Fearless, just finished at the Union Iron-works. She has a speed of sixteen knots an hour. If purchased by the Government she will be supplied with two 5-inch guns and a secondary battery of four 3-inch guns. She is also expected to be swifter than the Chilean torpedo cruiser and far more powerful. Admiral Brown also has secured options on four of Spreckels' big 10,000-ton tankers, which are to be at his disposal and Alameda, to be used for transport service. The Zealandia can be ready at ten days' notice and all the others inside of that time. The tug Fearless is to be ready in ten days.

Monterey can be made ready in three days after her armor plate is received.

WILL DEFEND BRAZIL.

ARMY OFFICERS DECLARE THEIR ALLEGIANCE TO PRESIDENT FRIZOTO.

JA DE JANEIRO, Dec. 22.—The chiefs of the army and of the National Guard have declared their allegiance to President Frizoto.

They declare that they will defend republican institutions and resist all attempts to restore imperial rule.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT SANTIAGO—EARTHQUAKE
—GRIF RAVAGES.

SANTIAGO, Chili, Dec. 22.—A large fire occurred last night in Santiago, in the Calle San Diego, on the property of señores Gaudarillas and Lucia Cuodra. Several buildings were gutted. The damage was 600,000 pesos. Several firemen were injured.

An earthquake shock was felt at 11:35 a. m.

The influenza has broken out at San Fernando, Chili, and is making rapid headway.

Has Columbus's Sword.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Mr. Stickler, one of World's Fair commissioners from Germany, has landed in Hoboken, and has in his possession what is said to be the sword carried by Christopher Columbus at the time of his discovery of America. The sword belongs to the museum of Salsburg, Germany.

Fanny Davenport III.
DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 21.—Fanny Davenport is confined to her room at the Cadillac with rheumatism, and the company has gone to Buffalo without her. Dr. Angus Nicolson, who attends the actress, does not regard the illness as serious. Miss Davenport has just recovered from a case of pneumonia, which prostrated her in Chicago, and her condition gives rise to some anxiety.

CLEMENCY FOR HARDEN.

A Young Husband's Blunder and Its Terrible Consequences.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 22.—Gov. Northern has signed an order pardoning Oscar Harden, the early part of this year Harden was married to one of the prettiest young ladies in this part of the country. They started out in a splendid country home, and their life was one of felicity until one day last summer. Harden and his wife just finished dinner. Harden got up, saying:

"Well, I must get to work. Come, kiss me good-bye."

He started out, but turned as he did so. "I believe," said he, "I'll carry my shot-gun. The blackbirds have been playing havoc in my cornfield."

He took the following piece, and shouldering it went out his wife calling after him as he did so. She stood at the window talking until he was 100 yards away. He turned around to say something, but as a reply she threw a kiss at him. Thinking to scare her, Harden raised the gun.

"I'm going to shoot," he cried.

"All right," she answered from the window. "Shoot, I'll bet you can't hit me."

A loud report followed. Harden returned at night expecting a welcome. Instead he found his wife dead. He was tried, convicted of involuntary manslaughter and sentenced to pay a fine of $200, and in addition six months imprisonment. The prosecution was pushed by his wife's father, who was a lawyer.

He paid the fines and costs and was placed in jail, where he now is.

The petition for pardon says that he is suffering from severe pain and swollen limbs as a result of typhoid fever last year. The judge, solicitor general and jury who tried Harden recommended his pardon.

IS RUTH DEAD?

Surrogate Waller accepts the Evidence as Conclusive.

New York, Dec. 22.—Among the victims of the triple train collision at East Thompson, Conn., on Dec. 4, was E. H. Ruth of Jamaica, L. I. He left his home with the friends of the other unfortunate who were killed in the wreck, began suit to recover damages against the railway company. But in this case the railway set up the plea that the cause of Ruth's death had not been established. His body had not been recovered, and they refused to settle with his heirs, claiming that there was no proof that the missing man had been a passenger on the train, and suggesting that the suit was an attempt to lay the foundation for a fraudulent claim for life insurance, the deceased having been heavily insured. In the hearing, the surrogate accepted the evidence of the witnesses, and granted the verdict for the railway company, awarding costs of $100,000 to the company.

The surrogate also accepted the evidence of the witnesses, and granted the verdict for the railway company, awarding costs of $100,000 to the company.

"FAUST."

The man answered with a color of astonishment in his voice:

"Did you not get my letter? I wrote you a long time ago, and you have not answered it."

Then followed some short questions and answers. Mrs. Sage did not recollect just what words were used in each case, but she does remember that the man said:

"I wrote you a letter saying that I would buy Mrs. Sage and his house up. Now, I want the money, and I want to see at once if you don't pay it. I will blow you up now."

The man had scarcely finished these words, when Mrs. Sage, slight and fragile as she is, rushed for the door, and with a powerful blow of the moment put the force of a strong man into her attack.

She caught at his throat, and fastening her fingers into his neck, held him for a moment with a grip that his pale face became almost black.

Mary, the servant, looked on all this with amazement. She had not time to help before she could think what to do. Mrs. Sage had thrust the man out of the doorway, and with the final vigor of a weak woman nerve to desperation, thrust him down the steps.

The crash at the bottom of the stairs was so loud that it was heard in the street. Mrs. Sage, who had been on the stairs, came down, and with a powerful blow of the moment put the force of a strong man into her attack.
